

Online Resources for College Skills

<http://www.Dartmouth.edu/~acskills/videos/index.html>

Videos on proven techniques and strategies for improving academic learning: chemistry video, time management, note taking, stress management, reading improvement and strategic learning.

www.reading.org/Resources/ResourcesByTopic.aspx

International Reading Association is the world's leading organization of literacy professionals. This site contains many links to various reading sites and resources.

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu>

Excellent PowerPoints on topics such as "Organizing Your Argument," "Sentence Clarifying and Combining" and "Documenting Sources Using APA and MLA." Also many useful handouts.

<http://bcs.bedfordstmartins.com/rewriting>

This site contains a Research Room, diagnostic tests (including some for ESL students) and a multitude of grammar, punctuation and mechanics exercises.

www.dianahacker.com

The site with exercises that go along with A Writer's Reference and contain a great deal of information on the writing process. A very good site.

<http://www.criticalreading.com>

Dan Kurland's strategies for critical thinking and writing. Useful information and explanation of critical reading.

<http://www.austhink.org/critical/>

Tim van Gelder's Critical Thinking on the Web. A very interesting and eclectic site of a wide range of topics and articles connected to critical thinking.

www.criticalthinking.org

The Critical Thinking Community: discussion forum and resources.